

Football fever ...

We are nearly there - the next big european event is around the corner. The EURO rallies and gathers fans from all over the world. It is also a great time for gifts ideas to different occasions.

You will find at Wild the packaging solution you need. For example our football shaped box with hinge.

This product can be produced in many different colours and variations - for watches with integrated holder or as a universal box.

Empty or with specific insert, these boxes will enhance a vast amount of gifts products.
